I read and understood the above information about insurance

The NASCAR Whelen Euro Series gives different media the opportunity to work in a professional environment. To keep the high level of media appearances we need you to send us links to your articles, photos and videos within two weeks after the event per e-mail (media@euronascar.com).

I read and understood and will provide the information required

Always act professionally. Follow the instructions given by officials and marshals. Never put yourself or others persons in danger. Motorsport is dangerous, be safe and cautious during the whole event. Always act kindly and respectful to officials, drivers and spectators.

I read and understood the above information about professional conduct
